From the Foundation

OUR AMAZING SUPPORTERS

I AM NO LONGER SURPRISED BY THE GENEROSITY OF REGINA'S SUPPORTERS, BUT I AM CONTINUOUSLY AMAZED.

As my Foundation Board presidency ends, I continue to be amazed and humbled by the extreme generosity of the Regina community. This generosity includes financial support of the EXCELLENCE FUND, Capital Campaign, and student scholarships, plus thousands of volunteer hours each year in service to our school. We are so blessed.

The Foundation continues to work diligently to enhance the school's long-term financial strength. The $450,000 EXCELLENCE FUND goal, with a fast-approaching June 30, 2019 end date, will provide important funding to meet operational needs and grow endowments for teacher salaries and tuition assistance. The endowments will pay out almost $250,000 to the school this year, and a record number 66 student scholarships will be awarded.

Executive Director Kecia Boysen continues to provide the Foundation with strong leadership, supported by a talented team of Shelley Rublaitus, Shane Schemmel, and Katherine Weiner. I'm pleased to introduce Greg McLaughlin as the new Board president effective July 1, 2019. Greg has served as president-elect for the past year, and previously led the Foundation's Development Committee. I'm also pleased to welcome Anne Kelly to the Foundation Board. We appreciate the contributions of Chris Clark, who will step down from the Foundation Board to serve on the Board of Education.

It has been a privilege to serve alongside Regina's intelligent and committed administrators, Foundation Board members, and Board of Education members. Above all, I am grateful for YOU, the amazing supporters of Regina.

Sincerely,

Eric Aitchison

THE POWER OF STORYTELLING

I was recently reminded that the stories we tell are essential to building and developing relationships. Our stories allow us to connect with others on a personal level, develop trust, and celebrate success. Stories matter because they have great power. With that power, comes responsibility.

We, the Regina community, are responsible for sharing our stories that showcase what it means to be a part of this magnificent school. Through storytelling, we can share our most memorable moments, biggest challenges, and greatest opportunities. I am sure that we all have many.

As we celebrate Regina's 60th Diamond Jubilee Anniversary, I reflect on what Regina means to me and my family, and the story I want to tell. Faith, friendships, and academic excellence are words that come to mind. A safe place for my children to grow and develop and not be judged for the mistakes I know they will make. A place parents feel welcome to take an active role in ensuring the educational success of their children. A place we are proud to send our children today and know our investment will pay off in the future. We are blessed with amazing faculty, staff, students and families. All of these people are instrumental to the success of our school and each has their own story.

As we prepare for the next 60 years of Regina, we must reflect on what we have accomplished, what allowed us to achieve those successes, and what are the next steps. As you will read in this edition of the Regina Record, there are many. We should all CELEBRATE!

I encourage all of you to be good stewards and be willing to share your Regina story with others. You all have a reason as to why you chose Regina. Don't assume everyone knows all about us. We need to tell others what they are missing! Find a way to connect with others and encourage them to create their own stories. Remember that the way you shape your story affects not just you, but future generations. When we tell these stories, we are all active participants in ensuring Regina will be successful for years to come.

On behalf of the Regina Board of Education, thank you for your ongoing contributions to Regina. Your generosity and support allow us to provide high-quality, faith-based education for our students and ensure future generations will have more stories to tell.

Tell me, what is your story?

Capital Campaign Update

It's time to complete what we started in 2016 when we launched the Pride in Our Past, Building Our Future Capital Campaign. Our goal then was to improve our facilities to better serve our students – and that goal remains. We are updating everyone on where we stand and defining our next steps in completing the projects included in Phase 1 of our master plan.

In January 2019, we conducted an assessment to lay the foundation for continuing the campaign. The results provided us with insight about the remaining projects and how best to move the campaign forward. Through the assessment, we learned:

- There is overwhelming support to complete the two remaining campaign projects – building a new Education Wing and expanding/updating the Early Childhood Center. There will also be improvements to the rear parking area during this process.
- 64% of assessment participants indicated that they will extend their current pledge or make an outright gift to the campaign to complete these two projects.
- Some respondents expressed concern that building the Regina Athletic Training Facility in Phase 1 indicates that Regina places greater importance on athletics over academics.
- Some participants voiced concerns about cost overruns on the completed projects and whether funds will be sufficient to complete the new Education Wing and Early Childhood Center projects.
- Finally, participants asked for more clarification about the completed projects and a vision to complete the Phase 1 projects. The response to that call for more communication began with a letter sent to all participants.

The intention was to complete the projects as specified in the master plan. Sometimes, however, an

in Our Past

Building Our FUTURE

opportunity presents itself, which means temporarily changing course. Regina's leadership evaluated the opportunity, in the form of a generous offer to fund a significant portion of the Regina Athletic Training Facility, and determined that it was in the school's best interest to accept the donation and rearrange the timing of the projects. Our school is grounded in the pursuit of an excellent faith-based education for our students, while ensuring they have opportunities for activities outside the classroom. Superior academics and quality extra-curricular activities make a powerful combination in a school – and that is what we seek to provide at Regina.

At its April board meeting, Regina's leadership reaffirmed its commitment to complete the Education Wing and Early Childhood Center projects. The fundraising projections from the assessment, along with several new and very substantial financial pledges (more information about this exciting development coming in July), suggest that this is an achievable goal. We have also retained the Steier Group, who conducted the assessment and coordinated the previous portion of the campaign, to assist with the campaign continuation.

Projects Completed 04

Thanks to the generosity of the extended Regina family, our campaign total stands at $4.8 million, with these projects completed:

- Expanded and resurfaced the front parking lot and resurfaced the front circle drive
- Replaced the leaking high school gymnasium roof
- Constructed the new First Avenue entrance/exit drive
- Renovated the 60-year-old boys and girls locker rooms
- Replaced the antiquated bell and intercom system
- Rerouted storm water retention (required by the city)
- Built and furnished the Regina Athletic Training Facility (while the training facility was not part of the initial Phase I projects, it was moved ahead of schedule when a donor generously offered to support its construction)

Based on current pledges and cash on hand, it is anticipated we will start the Education Wing this fall. We currently are in the final phases of construction planning and will be sharing our projected project timeline once the details are finalized.

We are excited about the future of the Regina Catholic Education Center. Our pursuit of excellence for our school and its students has never been stronger.

Melinda Shetler, Regina Board of Education Chair
Matt Pacha '78, Capital Campaign Co-Chair

NEXT STEPS

- Reconvene campaign leadership in May to prepare for a July campaign relaunch
- Recruit additional campaign volunteers in June to assist with fundraising efforts
- Begin approaching donors in July about continuing their support
- Publicly kick off the campaign continuation in August
- Host "town hall" meetings in September to share campaign progress and provide updates about the master plan

Msgr. James F. Parizek '64 Featured Alumnus

Monsignor James F. Parizek '64 passed away on February 3, 2018. He is remembered for his dry wit, colorful storytelling, gentle spirit and devotion to making the world kinder. Born and raised in Iowa City, he was the fourth of five children of Lester and Regina (Lekin) Parizek. He attended the newly opened Regina Catholic High School, graduating as co-valedictorian in 1964. He graduated magna cum laude from St. Ambrose College in 1968 with a degree in philosophy and then earned a master's degree in theology from the American College of the University of Louvain in Belgium in 1972. On July 15 of that year, he was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Gerald O'Keefe at St. Wenceslaus in Iowa City. His first assignment was as associate pastor at St. Paul the Apostle in Davenport.

Always striving for new ways to serve the Lord, Msgr. Parizek received his Canon Law degree from the Catholic University in Washington, D.C. in 1978. He served as secretary at the national office of the Canon Law Society and was appointed vice chancellor, judicial vicar and director of the tribunal where he served from 1981 until 2001. He received the title of Monsignor in 1989. He was appointed parochial vicar at Holy Family Parish in Davenport in 2001 and then pastor of Our Lady of Victory Parish in Davenport in 2002 until his retirement in 2016. He was named a Regina Distinguished Alumnus in 2016.

Msgr. Parizek had a special fondness for working with the hearing-impaired so that they, too, could hear the Word of God. He was instrumental in the development of a ministry to the hearing-impaired in the diocese and was active in serving this community. In 1979, he began providing Masses in sign language for deaf Catholics. Once a month for many years, he celebrated Mass by signing everything and he organized social events after the Masses.

Msgr. Parizek remembered his alma mater in his estate plans with a very generous gift. His family has directed the Regina Foundation to use these funds to endow a scholarship in his name. Multiple scholarships will be awarded annually, beginning in 2020, to assist students who choose a Regina Catholic education. Msgr. Parizek will be remembered into perpetuity at his alma mater through this scholarship and for his dedication and lifelong service.

Left: Msgr. Parizek's brother, John Parizek '69, lights a candle in his memory at the Regina Memorial Mass in May 2019.

CORRECTION: Msgr. Parizek's obituary was published in the 2018 Regina Record. We incorrectly included a photo of John Parizek, who also was in the Class of 1964 and is deceased. We apologize to their families for this error.

Personal problems that seem insurmountable at times quickly become inconsequential when I realize just how small of a role I play in this world. Diamond Jubilee

Regina's 60th Anniversary

THEN & NOW

REGINA CAMPUS

When Regina opened in 1958, the campus consisted of a rectory, chapel, convent, cafeteria, music-arts-industrial arts area, library, administrative space, gymnasium, locker rooms, and classroom areas. The athletic field was completed in 1962. Except for the convent, the building was one story, conforming to the terrain.

Today, the 22-acre campus includes baseball, soccer and football fields, a hard-surface track and new athletic training facility. The elementary wing opened in 1987. In 2004, a two-story addition was added with a new kitchen/cafeteria, science labs, seven jr/sr high school classrooms and a multi-purpose room. Four elementary classrooms were also added.

REGINA FACULTY

Regina's first faculty included eight Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary and six lay teachers. Four priests from the local parishes taught religion courses.

Now, 74 Regina faculty teach preschool- 12th grade students. One priest serves as school chaplain.

Along with 2019 being a special anniversary year for Regina, it was also the special 50th year staff anniversary for Marlene (Wombacher) Frantz '68.

Marlene graduated from Regina High School in the spring of 1968, and after Christmas break in January 1969, was asked to temporarily fill in at the high school front office - where she has been working ever since. Marlene's husband, Harry '67; children, Kim '87 and Barry '89; and many extended family members are also Regina grads.

Marlene is known and loved by generations of Regina students, faculty, staff and parents. She has worked with 16 different principals, knows boundless Regina trivia/information, has a fondness for the Easter treat, Peeps, and, it's been said she keeps a stash of candy in her desk drawer.

"Marlene Frantz Day" was celebrated on May 1, 2019, to recognize her dedication and service to the school and students. She was given a standing ovation after the May Crowning Mass, and had many family and friends attend a reception where she was presented the 2019 Kingery Character Award by the Regina Foundation. Marlene also received a special memory book put together by the Foundation that includes photos and memories of Marlene throughout the years from her friends, classmates, past students, co-workers and family. Marlene is the shining example of Once a Regal, Always a Regal!

'70 MEN & WOMEN CHALLENGE

In the spring of 1970, Regina High School senior “men” decided they wanted to do something that they would be remembered for. The original plan was to paint “Class of '70” on the gym roof, but that changed to “70 Men” at the last minute. As several of the original planners got cold feet and dropped out, eight “men” ended up carrying out the prank. Ultimately, in order to repaint the front of the gym roof, the entire senior class had to forfeit their cash reserves.

Today, members of the Class of 1970 ('70 Men and Women) challenge ALL Regina alumni to remember where they came from and “Pay It Forward” with a gift to the Regina EXCELLENCE FUND. The Class of 1970 is making this challenge in honor of 50 years since they started their senior year at Regina.

The class with the largest dollar amount of donations will be recognized with a trophy or plaque displayed in the high school lobby and it will be updated each year.

The “70 Men” sign on the front of the gym roof was painted over long ago, so now the '70 Men and Women want to be known for paying it forward, helping families afford a Regina Catholic education like others did for them over 50 years ago.

HOW WILL YOUR CLASS BE REMEMBERED?
Give to the Regina EXCELLENCE FUND today by mailing in your gift or making a gift online at www.regina.org/foundation.
